How to book

Agent can make a booking from and to the cities mentioned in the above table.

Once the booking is created with the guest's email address, an email will be sent with the booking reference numbers - the guest will receive a separate reference number for each guest and leg of the journey. This is not the ticket.

Guests should visit www.accesrail.com,

- Provide PNR Locator or e-ticket number.
- Confirm the booking
- This will generate an email with train ticket to the guest
- The guest must download the train ticket, print or save on their mobile

Guests should check-in at www.accesrail.com 72 hours prior to departure to print or download their boarding pass to their mobile phone, which includes their seat reservation.

The guest must be advised to always check departure screens at the stations for the exact departure times and check platform numbers, which may be altered at short notice.

Arrival at Rome

Upon arrival at Rome guest must collect her/his baggage before going to the train station at Rome.

Optionally, the guest can visit the ticketing office to have her/his train ticket printed.

Ticketing terms and conditions

Travel on the rail sectors is issued in conjunction with an EY flight sectors on the same ticket.

The guest must be advised to get in touch with the booking office in case of cancellation and refund.

Etihad's standard ticketing policy applies to rebooking and cancelling of the train segments according to the booking class fare rules.

The train ticket is valid on the booked Trenitalia train (as shown on the Etihad booking).

In case the Trenitalia train is delayed and causes a missed connection to the outbound flight from Rome, the guest must be advised to reach out to Etihad call center to be rebooked to the next possible flight.

In case of disruptions to the arriving flight in Rome, resulting in a missed connection of the train already booked, Trenitalia will accept guests on the next available train.

Trenitalia will honor Etihad' baggage allowance on its trains.
